

Exam Board CCEA - History A Level Specification (Sept 2017).

Aims of A Level History

- Encourage pupils' love of history.
- Develop skills for life forming an argument / evaluating information and perspectives / managing information / effective communication.
- Achieve each pupil's potential at A Level.

| Year 13 | Year 13 | Year 14 | Year 14 |
|-------------------------|------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------|
| AS1 Option 5 - Germany | *AS2 Option 5 - Russia | A21 Option 5 | A22 Option 1 |
| (1919-1945) | (1914-1941) | Clash of Ideologies in | England (1558-1603) |
| Weimar and Nazi Germany | Revolution, Lenin and | Europe (1900-2000) | The Reign of Elizabeth I |
| | Stalin | | |
| External written exam | External written exam | External written exam | External written exam |
| 1h30 minutes | 1h30 minutes | 75 minutes | 2h30 minutes |
| 50% AS (20% A level) | 50% AS (20% A Level) | 20% A Level | 40% A Level |

What you should see them doing:

- Homework (4 hours per week for History in addition to private study in school)
- Past paper questions
- Set reading
- Additional reading factual or associated historical fiction
- Weekly review of their work
- Revision
- Learning of information using various repetition techniques.

How you can help

- Encourage excellent attendance and punctuality.
- Encourage excellent organisation books / homework.
- Be interested their study.
- Early warning system.
- Check their Pupil Tracking form.
- Let school know if they are struggling.
- Enjoy historical films with them.
- Enjoy a day out related to their course.

The CCEA History Microsite will be useful:

http://ccea.org.uk/history/ (GCE from 2017) section